Foreword

As we come to the end of the road for this school year, we are happy to present you with this copy of the 1954-55 edition of the BACKLOG. Wherever the road of life may lead you in the future, it is our sincere hope that this book may serve as a reminder of all the joys, the sorrows, the work, the play and all the friends you have made while traveling through this year at Lipscomb.

MARTHA COPELAND, Editor

JOANNE EDMONDSON, Business Manager

Dedication

This book is humbly dedicated to a memory . . . the memory of one who was dearly loved by all who came in contact with him. Because of his kindness, meekness, and Godly life, he served as an inspiration to all who came his way. Death has taken his physical being from us, but no force can ever destroy the powerful example and high Christian ideals embedded in our hearts by our dearly beloved, the late S. C. Boyce.

Organizations

The Student Board, our student governing body, is made up of representatives from various student groups. This group meets with Vice-President Willard Collins, the representative of the administration, and aims to achieve a closer relationship between students and faculty. The Student Board conducts the school elections, discusses students' problems, complaints, and needs, and makes plans for a bigger and better Lipscomb.

The Student Guidance Service was organized three years ago to aid the students in their life at college. The services rendered were chosen with the students in mind in order to make their stay at Lipscomb more pleasant and profitable. Some of the services rendered are achievement and vocational tests, remedial reading classes, and orientation for the newcomers. Outstanding seniors are selected to assist in the orientation program.

The Bisons

With the return of eight lettermen, the Bisons had hoped for one of their better years. Although the record was not impressive, the boys played several outstanding games and provided several evenings of good basketball entertainment. The team reached its peak on December 4, as they soundly beat arch-rival M.T.S.C., 90-74. Much better things are expected for next year as all fourteen members of this year's team will be back for another campaign.
